WIDE World, developed at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, ANNOUNCES NEW MARKETING COLLABORATION WITH AMERICAN HIGHER EDUCATION, INC. IN INDIA AND MIDDLE EAST

David Zarowin, Executive Director of WIDE World, announced April 19th, 2006, the selection of American Higher Education, Inc. (AHEd) as a new marketing agent for its online professional development programs in India and the Middle East.

Mr. Zarowin stated, “Our comprehensive professional development solutions take international educators on a professional journey that will change perspectives, enhance strategies for teaching and learning, and lead to improved student performance. In order to meet the demand, we have entered into an agreement with American Higher Education, Inc. to promote and support delivery of our program in India and the Middle East.”

ZW Koo, CEO of AHEd, says, “We have been asked by educators in the Middle East and India to provide them access to the best teacher training available. WIDE World’s online and related onsite programs offer the latest strategies in teaching and learning and we are pleased to assist with this professional development opportunity for teachers who have limited access to quality training.”

AHEd has offices in the US, India and Dubai. The WIDE World programs will be offered through the company’s offices in India (Delhi) and the UAE (Dubai).

ABOUT WIDE World

WIDE World, developed at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, builds on thirty years of classroom-based research from Project Zero and the Harvard Graduate School of Education to provide professional development programs that incorporate the essential elements - the DNA - of effective teaching. Their online courses, on-site workshops, and individually designed district plans guide teachers, teacher leaders, coaches, and school leaders on coordinated journeys towards wide-scale improvement in classrooms and schools. WIDE World programs:

- Develop a shared language for educators to design, conduct, and assess great teaching
- Coach teachers in using classroom-tested strategies that improve student performance and promote deeper understanding
- Create professional communities of local and international teachers
- Build capacity for sustained, long-term improvement in schools and districts

ABOUT AMERICAN HIGHER EDUCATION, INC. (AHEd)
